GONDOLIER.

Allowing Railroads to Obey the Law.

If the government is going to run the railroads of the country, it must run them on business principles or accept the responsibility for general bankruptcy and ruin.
This has come to be pretty well understood at last in government
as well as railroad circles.

An illustration of it is the general recognition of the necessity of bringing the Sherman anti-trust law and the interstate commerce law into line with the Sherman law. It stands now, they Haddix's violate the law against combination if they uniformly obey the law regulation rates. If they obey the Sherman law by keeping out of combinations, some of them fall inevitably into violation of some of the various laws regulating rates.

The business of conducting the traffic of the country is so enormous and so complicated that it is simply impossible for railroads to obey the laws regulating charges separately and independently.
They can do so only by combination of competing as well as connecting lines, and the establishment of joint and uniform rates
for certain fields of traffic.

This combination to make joint and uniform rates was held by the courts to be in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act some ten years ago. That ruling never has been changed, though every possible effort has been made to soften
it. Now it is recognized that the thing to do is to change the Sherman law itself.

The subject comes up freshly in the Southern states, where the railroads are suffering most from loss of earnings and financial weakness, and where the state commissions seem determined to enforce the letter of both the rate law and the anti-trust law.

Examination of conditions in Texas and in the territory of the Southern railway has completely convinced the interstate commission that the only salvation of the railroads is the power to make joint rates under supervision. A strong effort will be made to give them this power at the next session of congress.

Brains and Beauty.

Misses Falay Long, the Hazel
Green milliner, and Miss Nancy Sample, the assistant, yesterday

two of the most lovely and lovable young ladies in this community—aye, two who will compare with any couple from center to circumference of this grand old commonwealth—left Wednesday to attend the Blue Grass fair at Lexington
after which they will visit relatives and friends at Frankfort and in Franklin county. They go as a bachelor team, without chaperone, dollars to doughnuts that the guarding of Kentucky will protect government ought, word and deed.

Simply because they are not not gifted in gossip, nor do they they sanction slander. How different from the frivolous flirt that occasionally bobs up. But to their credit be it said, most of our girls are endowed with both brains and beauty.—Hazel Green Herald.

Morg.

Rev. J. B. Finchum, accompanied by his wife, filled his appointment at Rose Bend church in Wolfe county Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cashman entertained at their home Sunday.
Those fortunate enough to be present were: Mr. and Mrs. DurNe'll, of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs.
Tomlin and family, and Miss Edna Williams. They all report a day very delightfully spent.

Algin Derickson made a business trip to Holly, Sunday.

The Sunday school convention held at this place the seventeenth, was quite a success. Bro. Summers, of Jackson, delivered a very interesting address in the afternoon. In the evening the subject,
"Child," was very ably discussed
by Bro. W. J. Vaughan; interesting talks were also given by Revs.
Derthick and Finchum.

Our school is progressing nicely
under the management of Miss Edna Williams, her enrollment being near seventy; and interest is increasing with both parents and pupils.

Relieves the Pain
of a Burn instantly

A New Discovery
by Dr. Porter an Old Railroad Surgeon.

25c packages free
at your nearest Drug Store

We have made arrangements with the majority of the local Druggists by which they will give away free a limited number of regular 25 cent packages of Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil as a means of introducing the remedy to those who have never used it. To be sure of getting a free sample call on your Druggist today.

The PARIS MEDICINE COMPANY, 232-30 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo., manufacturers of LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE and other standard preparations have a new discovery that far surpasses anything ever placed on the market for old sores, cuts, burns and all wounds.
When Marconi stated that he could send messages across the ocean without a wire or cable, the world did not believe it; if we were to tell you that

Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil

will cure old chronic sores which other remedies have failed to cure, and will absolutely relieve the pain of a burn instantly, you would not believe it; therefore we wish to place the remedy, FREE OF COST, in your hands to convince you that it is the most wonderful remedy ever discovered.

We Mean It

It is needed in every home. When any of the family are severely burned or cut, you haven't time to send for a remedy, but you need it at once; therefore do not delay to send to your Druggist for a regular 25c package, FREE OF COST. We give it free, in this way, because we know that when one family tries it they will recommend it to other families, and thus introduce it. Send for a free package and convince yourself that a wonderful progress along the line of new discoveries has been made in the manufacture of this preparation.

It will cure
Old Sores, Burns, Granulated Eyelids, Chronic Catarrh, Eczema, Ear Ache, Running Sores, Boils, Scald Head, Sore Throat, Skin Diseases, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Carbuncles, Scalp Diseases, Throat Trouble, Bites & Stings, Wounds.

WOLFE COUNTY. Campton.

Hon. John W. Langley and wife spent last Saturday night and Sunday here.

The town Board of Trustees are having considerable work done on the streets of Campton.

H. C. Myers, of the Russell & Company, of Louisville, was here last Tuesday looking after legal business.

Miss Laura Hollon, of Simpson, is spending this week at the home of her brother, I. R. Hollon, of this place.

J. B. Hoing, of Lexington, one of the State Geological Surveyors, is making Campton his headquarters this week.

J. D. Carroll, of Rogers, one of Wolfe county's best citizens, was here this week looking after the interests of the Wm. Boothe estate of which he is administrator.

The following parties registered at the Central Hotel Monday: E. D. Mann, Detroit, Mich.; J. S.

Rittenhouse, Hazel Green, Ky.; S. P. Burnam, Richmond, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kash, of Hazel Green, came to our town last Sunday morning. Mr. Kash returned home that evening, leaving his wife to spend a few days with relatives of this place.

R. T. Tutt, who left this section about four years ago to become a soldier, has returned in good health and has many interesting experiences to relate. Mr. Tutt, while in Uncle Sam's employ, visited the Philippines, Japan, China, Australia and many other points of interest.

The Wolfe County Sunday School Convention was held at the Stillwater Bridge last Sunday. Among others who attended from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Elkins, A. R. Marshall, S. G. Sample and E. T. Rose. The exercises of the day were very good from a Sunday School standpoint, and at the noon hour, a sumptuous and bountiful dinner was spread upon the ground.

Lost Creek.

Wick Deaton was in Jackson this week on business.

G. E. Drushal made a business trip to Jackson this week.

E. P. Landrum is building a dwelling at the mouth of Lost creek. James and Richard Bowling have the contract.

Mrs. Polly Campbell died at her home on Troublesome creek August 25, 1908. She had been blind 14 or 15 years. She said she was prepared to go.

Ned.

Z. H. Neace is in the carpenter trade in this vicinity.

If no providential hindrance, S. H. and J. H. Combs will conduct religious services at the school house near Andrew Hay's, Sunday, August 30.

Jeremiah Combs, son of John H. Combs, met with the misfortune of getting his hand very badly hurt with a stone while working on the public road. He is improving.

The members of the Mountain Association met according to their order with New Bethlehem to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their association. It was carried out with great satisfaction. Good order and good preaching.

The funerals of W. T. and Granville McIntosh will be conducted the first Saturday and Sunday in October, at the McIntosh graveyard a little above the mouth of the Barge on Troublesome, by John H. Combs, S. H. Combs and Calloway Cooper. Come one, come all.

I will meet the wool growers at the depot, Jackson, Ky., the second Saturday in September. Will receive their wool from 10 o'clock a. m. till 2 p. m. to ship to Phoenix Woolen Mills, Lexington, Ky. This will be the only shipment I will make this season.
Yours truly,

Edge. The Rural School of to-day, Hon. T. T. Cope. Song composed by the school and to be sung by the Primary and Intermediate departments.

Kentucky is our Blue Grass state; Kentucky, Kentucky.

The blue grass grows so tall and straight,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

Therefore, don't you see, like blue grass blades are we, And true as blue, we'll all stick to Kentucky, Kentucky.

We think our school beats all the rest,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

We try to make our work the best,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

But there is much we need before we can succeed, And so our song please help us on.

For Kentucky, Kentucky.

The mountains are the best thing in

Kentucky, Kentucky.

The rural schools are bound to win,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

But we should do better yet, if we could only get

A good big sum of money from Kentucky, Kentucky.

Kentucky is our native state,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

We think she is so grand and great,

Kentucky, Kentucky.

And now before we go we'll sing to you, oh!

Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah!

For Kentucky, Kentucky.

Ice cream and other

ments served at 4:30 p. m.

especially invite all brother Juniors to come and take part in these exercises.

The Death Roll.

Edith, the oldest child of Prof. George and Lucinda Clark, was born August the 3rd, 1899, and died at home after an illness of 28 days of typhoid fever, August 21st 1908, age 9 years and 18 days. She was converted in the Revival conducted by Brother Carter, joined the Methodist church and was baptized by the Pastor. She was reared in a good christian home. The consecration of her parents led to her early conversion. She was a ray of sunshine in her home, always happy and cheerful and ready to perform a task or amuse or play with the children. She was indeed a little mother, taking care of her little brother. She was perfectly devoted to her parents, and dearly loved her home. She was bright and winsome in her manner and had a lovely disposition. She was a favorite at Sunday school and with everybody. She was a sweet little christian proving by word and deed that she belonged to the Lord. She was the most patient sufferer we ever saw; and all through her illness she displayed true christian fortitude. Without a fear she asked the Lord to take her home and folding her hands, her face radiant with heavenly light, closed her eyes on this world and was born on angel pinions into the presence of the King; to behold Him in His beauty and to be with Him forever. She was a sweet angel, and a watch and with hopes, and aspirations for the future and what we hoped under God she might accomplish. We were illy prepared to give her up so soon, but we know God does for us what is best, and with trust in Him, we look away through tears to the time when we will be with her again, and while we may not understand just why He sends to us such grief and loss, we kneel and whisper through our tears a prayer for help, and know He hears.

There was an angel band in Heaven,

That was not quite complete. So God took our darling Edith, To fill the vacant seat.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last report:

E. L. Noble, of Jackson, and Miss Cilla Bowman, of Athol.

Judge J. B. White for Circuit Judge.

Hon. A. Howard Stamper for Commonwealth's Attorney.

The 23rd judicial convention met here Tuesday. Judge S. S. Taulbee was elected temporary chairman and J. Wise Hagins secretary and L. T. Hovermale, S. G. Sample and J. A. White assistants.

On motion of O. H. Pollard the following committees were appointed. One member selected by each county delegation and one by the chairman.

Committee on Resolutions: O. H. Pollard, of Breathitt; D. A. Wallace, of Estill; J. K. Roberts, of Lee; J. P. Rose, of Wolfe; and Henry B. Noble, of Breathitt.

Committee on Credentials: W. W. McGuire, of Breathitt; W. Sample, of Estill; Henry Plummer, nomination was made by acclamation.

Judge White, in his speech accepted the nomination for circuit judge in part said:

"The honor the convention has conferred on me by this nomination imposes the duty of earnest effort for a favorable verdict by the voters, having in view the discharge of a high public trust, the duties of which look to the peace and good order of society, the protection of liberty and life, and the security of property. These duties have no connection with politics, for political parties have for their aim certain policies and principles to be applied in the conduct of public affairs. While the legislative and executive departments of our system are of a political character, our magistracy is intended alone for a just, speedy and impartial administration of the laws, and there can be no political questions to enter the door which shelters personal security and property."

A. HOWARD STAMPER.

The above is the likeness of our able and distinguished nominee for commonwealth attorney. He is a lawyer of ability and will be elected this fall by an overwhelming majority. The people without regard to politics who want to see the law enforced are going to cast their votes this fall for Stamper. He will make our district a commonwealth attorney that we will be proud of. He is one of the ablest criminal lawyers in this section of the country, and is a man that the people will love to honor. He, as an orphan boy, has forged his way to the front ranks by his indomitable will and courage. He knows no such thing as defeat. The more the voters of the district see and know of him the larger his majority will be this fall.

of Lee; G. T. Center, of Wolfe and Hugh Riddell, of Estill.

Committee on Organization: J. L. Hagins, of Breathitt; J. E. Riddell, of Estill; F. A. Lyon, Jr., of Lee; A. C. Oliver, of Wolfe and J. F. Sutton, of Lee.

The committee on organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent which was adopted.

The committee on credentials reported that there were no contests and that all the delegates present were entitled to seats.

The committee on Resolutions, reported the following which was adopted:

The Democrats of the 23rd judicial district in convention, assembled, congratulate the people of the State and Nation on the splendid ticket named by the Denver convention, and we approve and endorse the declaration of principles there adopted.

We pledge our support to the nominee of this convention to the Democratic nominee for Congress in the 10th Congressional district and to the National Democratic ticket.

HENRY B. NOBLE, Chairman.
O. H. POLLARD.
D. A. WALLACE.
J. K. ROBERTS.
W. W. MCGUIRE.

While waiting for the reports of the committees, the convention was entertained by many good Democratic speeches.

After the report of the committees nominations were declared in order.

Judge J. B. White, of Estill, was put in nomination for circuit judge by Robert R. Friend, seconded by Hugh Riddell, J. K. Roberts, S. G. Sample and others. On motion of Hugh Riddell his vate property. The guarding of these rights, for which government is established, is the broad province of our courts. The preservation of social order, the protection of the personal right of every member of society from violence, the restraint of the reckless and vicious, the punishment of all who disregard the sacredness of life, the redress in cases where property is wrongfully withheld or invaded, the speedy trial of all cases, civil or criminal, are matters for the courts. They speak their own importance, which extends to the foundation of government itself, and carry its application to the threshold of every citizen. All must look here for protection against wrong and oppression.

"If your action to-day should meet the approval of those you represent and I should be chosen to discharge for a time the duties of this office it will be my constant care and earnest endeavor to uphold and enforce the law. And it is a pleasing consideration for me to have the assurance of support by many friends, who differ from me in political opinion, who have expressed their confidence that justice would be my guide.

"The issue will be finally submitted to you, to your neighbors, to the intelligent electorate of the district. Much may rest on me as your candidate, but far more will depend on you. To you I look for advice and support, and to the good people of the counties, and upon this reliance I have confidence in the final result."

Hon. A. Howard Stamper, of Wolfe, was put in nomination for commonwealth's attorney by I. R. Hollon, seconded by delegates from all the other counties. His nomination was also made by acclamation.

NOTICE!

ON and after September 15, 1908, Crawford & Co. store, of Jackson, Ky., will conduct their mercantile business on a strictly spot cash and produce plan only. No doubt some may take exceptions to such a radical change, but our judgment tells us that we can serve a greater number of people to better advantage, and at a less cost, than we can by the credit system. Call and test our new plan. We firmly believe you will be entirely satisfied, and we know to a certainty that we can sell you goods cheaper than any credit concern can or will undertake to do. We are determined from this date on that no expense caused by a credit system shall be a burden upon our customers. A cash system once established can do the honest people more good than any credit concern ever did or ever will. Respectfully yours--

Crawford & Co.
